

Snow camp Feb 24-26

We still have room for a few more people. We have reached our minimum of 40.

We will be playing bingo after dinner Saturday night at snow camp. Everyone wins who brings a $10 prize!

The timberwolves bought the right to cabin 6. There are too many timberwolves for the 12 beds so some of the kids will be sleeping on the floor. There is room in cabin 5 for a couple timberwolf families if needed. The mountain lions are in cabin 7. All Father/daughter and Mother/daughter wagon trains are in cabin 5. The warthogs are in cabin 8.

If we have snow, we will sled and have a snow man building contest. Please bring helmets, sleds and snowman building supplies.

If we don't have snow, bring your remote control car. We will be racing them. Also bring your bike as we will be riding to Jenks Lake. You can hike to Jenks Lake if you can't fit bikes in your vehicle! We will also be doing some rock hunting. Rocks made of certain chemicals glow cool colors under a black light. Marc will be bringing the black light.

If you will be arriving late Friday, please eat before you drive up the mountain. They will be serving dinner but if you miss it there aren't many places to eat in the mountains. On Saturday they will be serving breakfast, lunch and dinner with snacks in between. On Sunday they will be serving breakfast only. Good food, yum!

Trail Boss Assignment UPDATE

THE MOUNTAIN LIONS HAVE A SURPRISE FOR US AT THE NEXT CAMP-FIRE. THEY HAVE MADE COSTUMES AND DESIGNED A LOGO FOR THEIR WAGON TRAIN.

WHAT HAS YOUR WAGON TRAIN DONE? LET ME KNOW AND I WILL PUT IT IN THE NEWSLETTER!

I HEARD THAT THE TIMBERWOLVES HAVE GOT THEIR THINKING CAPS ON. THEY DON'T WANT TO BE OUTDONE BY THE OTHER WAGON TRAINS!

Kevin Cotterill has announced that in 5 years he will be joining the Father/daughter wagon train as his wife is expecting his first daughter May 2006. That will make the count 3 boys and 1 girl. Congratulations Kevin & Karen!

The mountain lions are hosting the March 24-26 campout at Ortega Oaks. They always think of something great!

We are going to Lake Cahuilla April 21-23. Last time we camped there we went to the Palm Springs Tramway.

Jurupa Park is May 19-21. We will also be attending the orange blossom parade on the Saturday of the camp-out. The theme of the parade is "It's a small world after all". We hope to do a float this year but it will depend on the rules of the parade. If they are the same as last year, we won't have to worry so much about the age of the vehicle.

June 9 is gonna be a campout in the mountains but it is not reserved yet. Maybe Lake Gregory.

June 17th is the end of year banquet cookout at the ymca. We want everyone to take pictures and we are searching for someone to create an entertaining CD that we can give everyone that has a slide show of our pictures put to music. If everyone submits pictures, we should be able to find enough good ones to make a decent slide show. If you have the necessary equipment to make a slide show and put it on multiple CD's, please let me know. If you have experience making a slide show and putting it to music, let me know. If you are interested in helping us with this project, let me know. I know that everyone would be happy to see a slide show of the adventure guides having fun.
